COMMUNITY AGREEMENTS

Respect Our Safe Space

Confidentiality – what’s said in the room stays in the room. Ask permission to share or discuss statements that others make. Clean Up & Recycle. Help us maintain a clean environment. Don’t Come High or Holding. ABSOLUTELY NO DRUGS OR ALCOHOL allowed! Absolutely no weapons allowed!

Respect the Storytellers

We encourage your full participation by actively listening and reflecting on the stories and experiences shared by guest speakers. We acknowledge the bravery it takes to publically share your story so we ask you respectfully listen and do not disrupt storytellers.

Take Care of Yourself and Others

Some of the themes and experiences shared by our storytellers may be prompt strong feelings and/or emotions, and that’s ok. We have asked local community healers to make themselves available to offer support to guests. Take breaks and drink water. Please ask for consent before touching, hugging, or offering any type of support to others.

Don’t Rain on My Parade

It’s Okay to Disagree. Don’t put down someone’s interests, views, and choices. There’s room for more than one idea and point of view. Appreciate and value multiple realities. Please keep any negative talk or thoughts to yourself. Listen generously. Assume goodwill.

Be Yourself

We are a diverse community. We celebrate and welcome expressions across a broad spectrum of gender and identity. Be Creative and express yourself. Don't hide or change who you are just to fit in. Make it a practice to ask and tell others which pronouns you use.

We Love Allies

Respect people's self-identity and different points of view. Support people who are different from you. Check Your Privilege and Assumptions. Be careful of jumping to conclusions. Use correct pronouns.

CONSEQUENCES

If you can't keep these agreements and are disruptive to the group, the event staff will give you a warning. If you need to be reminded a second time, you will need to meet one-on-one with a CLRJ staff member/healer. If the disruptions continue, you may be asked to leave the event space as determined by CLRJ staff.
